Dear friends and colleagues, teacher educators, researchers, and scholars from all over the world,

ISfTE 2017 in Denmark, April 24th – 28th.

The organizing committee at the Danish School of Education, AU hereby invite you to register and submit your abstract for the ISfTE conference 2017 in Denmark (International Society for Teacher Education). The conference takes place from April 24th to April 28th 2017 in Aarhus, Denmark. The Theme of the conference is: Education – teaching and learning for the future.

Unique Conference Format

Many of you know the unique format of ISfTE conferences from earlier years. During the conference in Denmark, in small groups you'll have the opportunity to present your paper, share your research and to getting feedback from dedicated interested colleagues from over the world. By working together with scholars from all over the world, you will get to know other participants extremely well, gain friends and working partners for future work.

School visits & mini conference

During the ISfTE 2017 conference in Denmark, you will have the unique opportunity to visit Danish schools, teachers and teacher educators and discuss the particular Scandinavian and Danish approach to children, schools and education. You will participate at a mini conference at which Danish teachers and teacher educators - from kinder garden to upper secondary level - will present various projects, from outdoor pedagogy to science and math projects in school and preschool.

Cultural program in European Capital of Culture 2017

Furthermore, you'll have the opportunity to participate in an interesting social and cultural program, during which you will get to know museums, culture, and history – maybe a few Vikings – of our country.

Finally, the city of Aarhus, in which the conference takes place, is selected the European Capital of Culture in 2017. This means that apart from the program of the conference you will have plenty of possibilities to participate in various activities before and after your stay in Denmark.

Register and submit your abstract now

You will find the program, and further information on our website. Don't hesitate to contact us in case you need more information.

We are proud to tell you that we have organized an interesting program for both participating delegates and accompanying persons, including academic, social and cultural events during the week in April 2017, when ISfTE takes place.

We are looking very much forward to seeing you in April 2017 in Denmark!
